EXCLUSIVE

By Charles Thomson

southend@yellowad.co.uk

MORE THAN 100 youngsters have been hired as apprentices, thanks to a Yellow Advertiser campaign.

Apprenticeship company LifeSkills revealed the YA's 100 Apprentices in 100 Days campaign had secured work for 102 local teens.

The campaign - now in its second year - created a further 38 new positions, still waiting to be filled.

It was backed by Basildon, Castle Point and Southend councils.

LifeSkills operations director Leon Bernasconi said: "It is great to see that together with the Yellow Advertiser and support from local councils we have had another successful year.

"We have had so many calls from young people responding to the challenge that we have signposted to other colleges and providers where we could not help with the vocations they wanted.

"I would like to thank all the employers that have come on board and given someone a chance to contribute to their business."

Colin Riley and Bill Sharp, Tory leader and deputy leader of Castle Point Council, successfully lobbied officers to create four apprenticeship roles as part of the campaign - the first the council has offered.

Cllr Bill Sharp, Leon Bernasconi (Life Skills Director), Mick Ferris (YA Editor), Cllr Phil Turner (leader Basildon Council) and Cllr Colin Riley with what is on the table for apprentices

Mr Bernasconi visited the council last week to speak to companies about the benefits of hiring apprentices. Basildon and Southend councils pledged to arrange similar meetings.

Cllr Riley said: "I am delighted with the success of this excellent scheme and thank both the Yellow Advertiser and LifeSkills for bringing it to our attention. It is our intention to continue our involvement for the foreseeable future."

Basildon Council backed the campaign for a second year running, having last year created 17 apprenticeships and put LifeSkills in touch with its Business Forum.

Tory leader Phil Turner praised the YA's "excellent work" on the campaign and described the result as "absolutely brilliant".

He said the campaign tallied with the council's commitment to promoting apprenticeships.

He said: "Together with our partners in Basildon, we have put a tremendous effort into delivering more apprenticeships for our community.

"Our initiative is working and the benefits and payback will be to provide residents with opportunity and prosperity that will help them, as well as driving Basildon to be the economic engine room of Essex, if not the whole south east of England."

YA editor Mick Ferris said: "I am sincerely proud to say that since last year almost 250 local youngsters have been hired as a direct result of Yellow Advertiser campaigns.

"We are a community newspaper and I am delighted that we have been able to spearhead such a beneficial scheme, cutting youth unemployment and boosting the local economy.

"I am pleased we have been able to work so effectively with three large councils, and I thank them all for their help. I also thank LifeSkills, who approached us last year for help in boosting their numbers, resulting in the creation of this campaign."

Competition

Win tickets to the creative crafts show

LOOK forward to the New Year with new workshops, new crafts and new designs at the Creative Crafts Show in January.

The event, which runs from Thursday to Saturday, January 22 to 24, 2015, at Sandown Park Exhibition Centre, Esher, Surrey, offers the perfect chance for anyone to try something new for 2015.

With 80 exhibitors under one roof, keen crafters can also take advantage of show offers to stock up on supplies of their favourite craft items, as well as meet local crafters, and get advice and inspiration.

The show, which runs from 10am to 5pm daily, offers a great mix of crafts for everyone – whether you like to knit, quilt, stitch, crochet, or enjoy paper crafts, stitch craft, painting, card making or sugarcraft. Visit stands full of craft goodies, and enjoy free demonstrations, show offers, workshops and Make and Take sessions, as well as a few new additions this year.

Renowned sugarcraft expert and author Ann Pickard will be at the Creative Crafts Show in Surrey for the first time this year, hosting five sugarcraft Make and Take sessions every day.

AbbieAnne Patchwork will be using her new Daisy Shadow design in FreeFlo Shadow Applique workshops, while Tracy Quinn Glass Sun Katchers will be offering a great introduction to stained glass copper foiling with her new heart design.

Try arm knitting, a fun and easy way to knit without needles; enjoy a Knitting Surgery with Fiona Morris offering help and advice on reading patterns and techniques, or take along your unfinished project for her help; create a beach hut postcard with acrylic paints on hand painted fabric at Anne Moore's Make and Take session; or make a merino mobile phone case with FLEWS Group.

For further information about the event, which offers plenty of free parking, a free shuttle bus from Esher station, and free admission for accompanied under 16s as well as accompanying carers, visit www.sccshows.co.uk

To win one of 30 pairs of tickets to the show just answer the following question.

Q: What is the fun and easy way to knit without needles?

A: Hand knitting

B: Arm knitting

C: Leg knitting

To enter the competition

telephone your answer - A, B or C - to (0901 307 1676) along with your name, address, telephone number and email.

SEAWAY DEVELOPMENT: A computer-generated image of part of the complex. Right, Alan Richards, Southend Council's group manager for asset management, council leader Cllr Ron Woodley, centre, with Tim Deacon, development director for Turnstone Estates at the car park site

Scheme offers 'once in a generation opportunity'

By Paul Giles

southend@yellowad.co.uk

PLANS to develop a £50million leisure and residential complex at Seaway car park have been sealed by Southend Council.

The council has announced a deal with Turnstone Estates that will create 450 new jobs in the borough. The proposals will see land near the seafront at Lucy Road turned into a 10-screen cinema, 11 restaurants and 99 apartments.

An additional 480-space multistorey car park is also planned to replace the current 453 spaces at the site.

Turnstone Estates has pre-let the first three units to The Restaurant Group, which operates the Coast to Coast, Frankie & Benny's and Chiquito restaurants.

The cinema operator is due to be named shortly. The leisure scheme will cover a total of 136,000 square feet.

Also included in the plans are the site of the former Rossi Ice Cream Factory and 29 Herbert Grove, which was purchased by the council in 2008 to enable future regeneration, in a deal funded by the Homes and Communities Agency which supported the proposed development.

Public consultation on the proposed development will begin in the spring of next year.

Subject to planning permission, Turnstone Estates hopes to start work in late 2015.

Leader of the council Ron Woodley said he was delighted to announce the latest stage in the development of the scheme.

Mr Woodley said: "The job creation and private sector investment in this regeneration scheme are significant and provide a once in a generation opportunity to bring real change to this part of the town and to increase the year round leisure offer for residents and for the six million plus visitors to the town.

"We are looking forward to taking this exciting scheme forwards with Turnstone Estates."

Tim Deacon, Turnstone Estates director, said the scheme will finally deliver a cinema and restaurant destination that has been lacking from the town for many years.

Mr Deacon said: "The site is a strong location, close to the seafront and the Royals Shopping Centre, and we believe our proposals will enhance the area, as well as safeguarding local parking provisions.

"We are looking forward to working with the council, local residents, seafront traders, St John's Church and other stakeholders over the coming months."

NEWS IN BRIEF

● AN art auction organised by a day care patient at Havens Hospice has raised almost £1,500 for the charity.

Cindy March, 40, from Rochford, has been attending day care at Fair Havens, Westcliff, since September, after being diagnosed with terminal cancer in March this year.

A former art teacher at Chase High School and Futures Community College, Cindy held an art exhibition at TAP in Leigh last month to raise money for the charity and last week auctioned off the work and raised £1,470.

● VOLUNTEERS who give up their time to care for young people have been honoured at a special event.

About 60 volunteers attended celebrations of their work at Southend Civic Centre, hosted by mayor councillor Chris Walker.

Councillor Anne Jones said the event last Thursday provided the opportunity to recognise and celebrate the contribution volunteers make to young people in the community.

Southend churches – night shelters

"Essex Action" – as heard on Chelmsford Radio – with Volunteer Centres Essex

IN Southend, churches have joined forces with Harp and the council to help rough sleepers over the winter months.

Homelessness is a huge issue in Southend, so the churches are opening their doors to provide food and shelter from the coldest weather.

More than that, they offer warmth, love and friendship.

But they can't do it without your help.

There are three shifts to cover, from the evening through to morning. Full training is given and you will be fully supported.

So please, if you are a night owl, a good listener and would like to help people living on the streets this winter, call Emily at the volunteer centre in Southend on 01702 356000.

Store staff jump to it and support children's charity

STAFF at an electrical and homeware store are raising money for Save the Children.

Edes, based in Leigh and Rayleigh, held a Christmas Jumper Day and hope they can add to the £1.6million the national event raised last year. Every pound donated was matched by the Government.

Store managers are still on hand to take donations from members of the community.

Marketing executive Adele Hagon said: "It was great festive fun to wear our Xmas jumpers in store for a great cause."

"We have raised £50 so far and we are still collecting for the Save the Children charity."

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT: One of the crochet pieces The Craft Club created near Leigh Railway Station

Craft Club wins stamp of approval

FESTIVE spirit is being spread by a craft club at train stations in Southend.

The Craft Club, made up of four people who work at Appleton School, Benfleet, has been placing charming winter scenes on post boxes.

Members hope their crocheted creations will cheer up commuters on their way to and from work.

Rebecca Burton, 34, who works as a pastoral co-ordinator at the school said they only started to crochet in July.

She said: "We decided to have a go at doing the Christmas-themed pieces. We thought we should use post boxes near stations due to the footfall of commuters. We started making them back in October so a lot of work has gone into them."

"People have sent us messages and have given us some really good feedback about the pieces."

Opinion and readers' letters

Good deeds or cheap publicity?

THERE must be a general election coming.
Cllr Gavin Callaghan performs yet another cheap publicity stunt – this time his alleged sleeping out for the homeless fundraiser.

The other participants of this are regulars and do not feel the need to trumpet it.

I noticed his trusty Gavmobile parked nearby on the night in question. The swish London taxi with his mugshot plastered on the side. A rather expensive way to promote one's parliamentary aspirations.

I'm sure a lot of folk would like to know how it is being funded. But perhaps dear Gav might allow some homeless people to take shelter in it. Surely that would be a more practical use. As I'm sure it would have been on the night of the sleep out.

But then let's look at Cllr Callaghan's other publicity stunts this year including trimming hedges and cleaning up the environment in Basildon.

However, when I visited the Felmores area a day or so after, there was much evidence of dumped rubbish and untidy hedges.

And let's not forget the YouTube video of Cllr Callaghan pouring a bucket of water over himself to represent the ice bucket challenge. Not an ice cube in sight. And I thought the ice bucket challenge had to be done in conjunction with others. You need someone to pour it over you and you need witnesses. There appear to be none in this video.

Then there was the much self-publicised trolley dash that never happened – in a Tesco superstore. However, ironically, the mayor did one the same day.

I say ironically because Cllr Callaghan is fond of challenging the mayor with regard to her charities and causes but is often seen hijacking them himself.

The homeless sleep out is something the mayor has been involved for years. Other councillors have also trimmed back hedges and performed beyond the call of duty helpful tasks for residents, but they don't all have newspaper photographers on hand when they do it.

And what of Cllr Callaghan's vow to run the London Marathon? The mayor publicly stated in the last full council meeting that she would be prepared to sponsor him – despite all the withering comments he has made about her in public and on social networking sites.

Cllr Callaghan ungallantly responded by dictating to the mayor that the minimum sum should be £500.

Really? I should have thought a charity would be grateful for any amount of money.

What is needed now is for Cllr Callaghan to stop using local charities as a vehicle for his election campaign and also in an attempt to upstage the mayor – of whom he is fond of criticising – and instead apply himself to quietly working for the residents of Pitsea north-west, and doing the mundane everyday tasks that are required of him instead of trumpeting his efforts in the local press, posing for photographs and spending a disproportionate amount of time on his Twitter account putting down the efforts of councillors from other parties.

If he is to represent Basildon and Billericay in a general election he needs to grow up.

There are thousands of ordinary people who do things for charity everyday and others on a regular basis. We just get on with it and we certainly don't use it for self-aggrandisement or vote catching.

Less power for county

IT would appear that devolution is a good thing if England gets to decide on English matters and these decisions are not made by non-English MPs.

Devolving powers to Essex County Council (ECC), however, would be in my opinion a bad thing. ECC has a very poor track record on decision-making.

It has been led by a criminal, allowed our roads to get into a poor state, run poorly planned road schemes like Sadlers Farm (will the cones ever go) and it has plunged us into dangerous darkness during the night.

In fact, I have been scratching my head to find something good it has done.

I believe it should have fewer powers not more.

Alan James Hockley

We've got the measure

IT has come to our notice that a Mr David Johnson is emailing local councils across Britain accusing them of breaking the law by using traditional measurements, such as rods and poles to describe gardening allotments.

More than 150 councils have been contacted so far and Mr Johnson does not disclose that he is not a local resident.

These emails commence under the Freedom of Information Act, asking for allotment prices, but then switch context and use deadlines under the FOI Act to force a change to metric units.

Some councils have removed rods and poles as a result of these emails. We want to assure councils and allotment holders that Mr Johnson is wrong. No legislation has been passed to outlaw traditional units for allotments. When drafting metric regulations in the mid-1990s, the Government exempted "transactions by specification", of which allotment contracts are an example. Poles, poles, perches, yards and lugs have existed for hundreds of years in Britain and we hope that councils and allotment holders continue to use them for centuries to come.

Careless talk

I WAS appalled to hear Tory peer Baroness Jenkin say that "poor people used food banks because they don't know how to cook".

Thanks to the Tories the number of people using food banks has soared from 128,000 to 913,000 in just two years.

Apparently Baroness Jenkin mis-spoke.

In October, another Tory peer, Lord Freud, said disabled people in work "weren't worth the minimum wage". Apparently Lord Freud was thinking aloud.

A couple of years ago another Tory peer, Lord Young, resigned as David Cameron's business advisor when he pronounced that "the recession wasn't really that bad for most people".

I can't remember his excuse. Perhaps Lord Young was quoted out of context? Another favourite. We are led to believe these privileged and educated people either didn't mean what they said or were misunderstood by us, the great unwashed. I think it could be worse than that. Maybe they meant what they said?

Perhaps the Tories are even more heartless and out of touch than I thought?

David Bodimeade

Shops not just for Xmas

WITH the season of goodwill approaching, Castle Point Council is to be thanked for its magnanimous gesture of freeing up the shopping car parks for a few days. But Cllr Tom Skipp's crass remark that it is intended to try and make things a little bit better for the traders over Christmas, just beggars belief. Surely, if the council recognises that local shopkeepers need to have things better at Christmas, why not the whole year. A shop and a shopkeeper are not just for Christmas, as the saying goes.

Two in running for lucrative waste contract

TWO experienced waste management companies are competing for a 16-year multimillion pound contract to provide recycling, waste collection and street cleaning services in Southend.

Following a legal, financial and technical evaluations of tender submissions, Veolia and Sita have been invited by Southend Council to the third and final stage of the procurement process.

Leader of the council Ron Woodley explained that throughout the process the authority's aim has been to secure the company that can best serve the town.

He said: "We want a company that will continue and improve upon our recycling targets, deliver first class service to our residents and businesses, maintain an attractive street scene across the borough and provide the best possible value for council taxpayers' money."

"The process for selecting a service provider has progressed well and it's encouraging to be at the final stages of tendering with two very experienced companies in the running, who between them have more than 50 waste management contracts with local authorities."

"The vast majority of staff working for Cory will transfer to the new contractor, therefore protecting local employment."

"Officers will now continue dialogue with these two companies to help them further develop their proposals, with final tenders due to be submitted in February 2015."

The current recycling, waste and street cleansing services contract expires in October 2015.

The new contract will integrate toilet cleaning, weed spraying and graffiti cleaning services which are currently provided under separate arrangements.

Council to fly flag for revived Thames Gateway partnership

SOUTHEND Council is set to join a revived Thames Gateway South Essex Partnership (TGSEP) with Thurrock Council.

This is after Essex County Council revealed its intention to leave the group to focus on "Greater Essex".

Other South Essex authorities will be invited to continue being members with new arrangements in place from April 1 next year.

This will allow South Essex to continue pursuing its regeneration goals and submit funding bids to the South East Local Enterprise Partnership (SELEP) which was set up in 2013.

Despite SELEP operating through South Essex, Kent, Medway and East Sussex, and the associated strategic plan being approved by Government, the county council wants to reduce the areas down to three with one Greater Essex area.

The approach is not supported by the SELEP board.

Southend Council leader Ron Woodley said he was disappointed with the county council's move to step away from the partnership.

Mr Woodley said: "Future funding from Government is intrinsically linked to SELEP and TGSEP has negotiated hard to ensure that South Essex remains as a represented geographical area.

"Along with Thurrock, we have no intention of allowing that important work over a number of years to go to waste by being subsumed into a Greater Essex region.

"That would weaken the profile of Southend and South Essex, and mean we would have to compete for funding against Essex-wide considerations and lead to delays both getting funding for and delivering future projects."

Town to light special candle for survivors of Holocaust

SOUTHEND has been selected to host a significant ceremony for Holocaust Memorial Day.

The town is one of 70 locations across the country where 70 specially designed candles will be lit in memory of the 70th anniversary of the liberation of death camp Auschwitz-Birkenau on January, 27, 1945.

A candle created by a world renowned artist will be lit at Southend Civic Centre, Victoria Avenue, on Tuesday, January 27, as part of the borough's Holocaust Memorial Day Service.

Southend-based Holocaust survivor Leslie Kleinman will light the candle at the start of the service at 5.30pm to begin a moment of reflection honouring the survivors of the Holocaust and subsequent genocides.

Mr Kleinman will give an address during the event which will include music, drama and poetry reading.

The service, one of Southend's series of commemoration activities, was chosen from hundreds of applications sent to the Holocaust Memorial Day Trust, the charity responsible for the event.

Councillor for enterprise, tourism and economic development, Graham Longley, said the day is an important focal point in the year and added he was delighted the authority had been selected on a nationwide basis.

Mr Longley said: "It is vital that we remember and reflect upon the horrors of the past, and honour those who survived."

The candles will also be lit at a national commemorative event in central London and at Auschwitz as part of international commemorations.

Olivia Marks-Woldham, chief executive of the Holocaust Memorial Day Trust, said the designer has created a beautiful candle to mark the 70th anniversary.

She said: "When all 70 of their candles are lit throughout the country, it will be a poignant moment of remembrance and a time for us all to ensure we keep the memory alive."

With Newstyle – it's all about the detail

IMAGINE an individually designed kitchen or bedroom containing furniture custom built exclusively for you – but at a moderate price.

At Newstyle you can let that dream become a reality, so why not visit the company's showroom at Unit 2, 60 Progress Road, Eastwood, Leigh.

There you will be able to view a range of products, from bedrooms to kitchens through to fitted bathroom furniture and home offices.

Newstyle will make units to any heights, width or depth to accommodate awkward room dimensions, and you won't be charged double for special sizes.

The family-owned and run business has been trading locally for 21 years and has built up a huge satisfied clientele due to attention to detail – not just on the manufacture of the product but, equally important, to the standard of installation.

Once you have decided to proceed, delivery and installation is usually made within three to four weeks from placement of order, and the final payment will not be due until completion of installation.

To take advantage of the Newstyle free, no-obligation survey and quotation service, call 01702 520001 – six days a week.

Victims of floods could be in line for financial help

HUNDREDS of residents and businesses in Southend, whose properties were flooded between April 2013 and March 2014, may be eligible for financial support towards expenses and losses they received.

The deadline for submissions is Wednesday, December 17.

There will be a formal application process later, when applicants will have to provide evidence of the flooding as well as evidence of related costs, such as repairs and receipts.

Anyone who expresses an interest in the Flood Support Scheme, the council will contact them directly to notify people of the application process has begun.

When notifying the council, you will need to provide your contact details, including whether the claim is from a residential property or business and tell the council what schemes you think you may be eligible for.

If you do not have a computer at home, computers are available for public use at The Forum and local libraries. Friends or family members may also complete a form on your behalf with your consent.

Councillor for public protection, waste and transport, Martin Terry, said the scheme was great news for the borough.

Mr Martin said: "I urge residents and businesses affected to look at the flooding section of our website, to see if they might be eligible and register their interest."

"More than 150 properties reported flooding during last year's flooding events in August and October and we have started distributing leaflets to those properties and their neighbours."

"However, we believe that there were many other householders and business owners across the borough who didn't report flooding to us, so are currently under our radar."

"We want to ensure that everyone who is eligible to receive financial relief has an opportunity to do so."

'Hoff the Hook' more than happy to play it for laughs

DAVID Hasselhoff who stars in the panto at the Cliffs Pavilion said he has been enjoying the peace and quiet of Southend before the show opens.

Better known as the Hoff, he says has not explored the town too much yet, but is enjoying early morning runs along the beach.

Well known for his roles in Knight Rider, and Baywatch, he will be playing "Hoff the Hook" in this year's panto Peter Pan. He will be joined by the country's best known dame Christopher Biggins, who is playing Mrs Smee.

When the Yellow Advertiser spoke to the Hoff he had only been in town for a few days, but said he had settled in well.

He said: "I've found a really nice hotel up the road and they let me get on with my own thing. When I stay in London I get swarmed by people, but where I'm staying I think people know I'm there and let me get on with my own thing. It's great to get up in the morning and go for a run. Southend seems like a great town and I look forward to seeing more of it."

Speaking about the show he recalls those he was in back in America when he was younger where the audience was encouraged to throw food at the actors. "I just loved the audience participation and that relates to panto as well. Hook is definitely the best character to play. I love playing him because you can make him act in different ways. You can make him really mean, or really afraid of the crocodile."

"The character can really play up to the audience too and make them really like him. I know how to get adults laughing, a few of the jokes we have had to cut back a little, but the adults will still understand them. But the main thing is getting the kids laughing, that's what I aim for."

Biggins, who has performed at the Cliffs Pavilion before, said he loved Southend and was hoping the fish and chip shops had not shut for winter.

He said: "It's also great to be back at the Cliffs it is a fantastic theatre and it has great audiences. Essex audiences really go for it in a big way."

He is grateful to be back at the venue as he could commute from his home in Hackney each day. Speaking about working with the Hoff, he said: "I only met David recently and he has a great sense of humour and is really very talented. My background is panto but Hoff's is a lot different to mine, so the panto will be really exciting."

"I think panto is a breeding ground for theatre, if they enjoy the panto they are more likely to go to the theatre during the year so it's a good thing."

"The cast for this panto is excellent the production team have really gone out of their way to find the best people."

TAKE IN A PANTO THIS CHRISTMAS

AUDIENCES are being entertained by enchanted tales across Essex in a range of outstanding pantomimes, from Peter Pan and Cinderella, to Sleeping Beauty.

Alongside mince pies, tinsel and carols, pantomimes are an essential ingredient to the festivities, so make sure you book your seats and join in all the fun, which continues at your local theatre right into the new year.

Here are just some of the fantastic productions we have seen so far this year.

SLEEPING BEAUTY: Queen's Theatre, Hornchurch.

The Queen's Theatre, home to the UK's only professional resident group of actor-musicians, the award-winning cut to the chase... is again delighting audiences with a wonderful festive treat.

Having put on pantomimes for a staggering 61 years, the Queen's knows just how to do it, and once again their production has everything you could possibly want.

This year their production of Sleeping Beauty offers fun for all the family, with plenty of audience participation, laughter and all-round fun.

Join Tom Clutterbuck on an adventure through the Enchanted Forest to help rescue Sleeping Beauty, throw in some slapstick humour, outrageous costumes and a professional band in the pits, and you have a panto just as it should be.

Meet the outrageously funny Nurse Nelly, played by panto favourite Simon Jessop, who has plenty of experience in the business having played the dame at the Queens' in previous productions such as Dick Whittington, Aladdin, Cinderella and Jack and the Beanstalk.

With original songs composed by the Queen's head of music, and outstanding scenery created on-site by the theatre's highly skilled carpentry workshop, scenic artists, prop-makers, the whole production is a glittering affair.

Sleeping Beauty at the Queen's Theatre is a production not to be missed, and definitely one for all the family, so make sure you get your tickets before it finishes on January 10.

For further information and tickets visit www.queens-theatre.co.uk.

SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS: Thameside Theatre, Grays.

This festive season Polka Dot Pantomimes are producing 10 pantos across the country. As well as Peter Pan at the The Broadway, Barking, another of its productions not to be missed is Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs at the Thameside Theatre in Grays.

With television presenter Jeff Brazier in the role of Prince Charlie, and the phenomenal voices of Michelle Pentecost, who plays the Wicked Queen, and Juliette Dean, who plays Snow White, the production is playing to packed audiences.

Combine this with chart songs that get the audience's feet tapping, fantastic stage settings and hilarious comedy and mishaps, and it is well worth a visit.

The Twelve Days of Christmas song is hilarious with toilet rolls flying around the audience, a misplaced wig, and plenty of frantic stumbling over words, as Nurse Nelly, Herman and Muddles attempt to remember everything to make the Wicked Queen beautiful.

Cinema

Just plain dumb

Jeff Daniels and Jim Carrey

DUMB AND DUMBER TO (15, 109 mins)

THERE'S no shortage of dim-witted, foolhardy and empty-headed characters on the big screen. Watch any horror film and at least one victim will venture into the dark to investigate a strange noise when common sense dictates you run in the opposite direction. Inspector Clouseau blundered through various investigations yet somehow always solved the case; A Clockwork Orange featured a droog called Dim and Kevin Kline won an Oscar as numbskull assassin Otto West in A Fish Called Wanda.

Forrest Gump, one of cinema's great innocents, famously remarked that "stupid is as stupid does" and using that barometer, Dumb And Dumber To takes the art of moronic tomfoolery to new depths.

From the eye-watering opening gag of a DIY catheter removal, Bobby and Peter Farrelly's mindless sequel to their hit 1994 comedy embraces every crude, lewd and inappropriate set-up imaginable in its relentless pursuit of cheap, grubby titters.

If this is the future of comedy on film then the art form has flat-lined and I would strongly recommend for a Do Not Resuscitate order.

Jim Carrey and Jeff Daniels reprise their roles as best pals Lloyd Christmas and Harry Dunne, who mix up their words ("That's all water under the fridge") and are blinkered to the perils of modern life.

They merrily take a shower under the waste water pipe from a nuclear power plant.

For two decades, Lloyd (Carrey) has been consigned to Baldy View Psychiatric Hospital, where Harry (Daniels) visits and helps nurses to wash, dress and feed the comatose patient. Thankfully, Lloyd regains the few senses he possesses and supports Harry through his own medical emergency; an urgent kidney transplant.

Since Harry is adopted, there is no familial donor and the future seems bleak.

Out of the blue, Harry learns that he fathered a child in 1991 with old flame Fraida Felcher (Kathleen Turner).

"Do you know what this means? You have a grown kid... with grown kidneys!" shrieks Lloyd.

The dim-witted duo track down the fruit of Harry's loins, Penny (Rachel Melvin), to her adopted parents; reclusive scientist Dr Pinchelow (Steve Tom) and his trophy wife (Laurie Holden).

Alas, Penny has already departed for a convention in El Paso to honour her father's ground-breaking work. So the simple-minded pals hit the road - and occasionally each other - in order to reunite Harry with his long-lost offspring and persuade her to give up her organ.

Dumb And Dumber To is a greater ordeal for us than it is for Harry and Lloyd, who are battered and bruised by misfortune.

The plot is nonsensical and includes pointless diversions including a brief reappearance of the Mutt Cutts dog van from the original picture.

Carrey and Daniels fling themselves into the fray with gusto, at the mercy of a script that lacks subtlety, sophistication or any discernible laughs.

Stage

Panto season swings into Christmas

Panto Dame, Rob Stevens, brings a wealth of panto experience to the stage, having been in everything from Sleeping Beauty at the Carriageworks, Leeds, in which he played Nurse Katy Coughdrop, to Widow Twankey on board MV Bretagne.

For further information and tickets for Snow White, which remains at Thameside Theatre until January 4, visit www.thurrock.gov.uk/events/snow-white.

CINDERELLA: Towngate Theatre, Basildon.

Cinderella is a fun, energetic masterpiece that captures the spirit of pantomime while celebrating the community.

The Towngate Theatre welcomes back producer and director, Simon Fielding, following the success of Rapunzel last Christmas.

The CBBC and Nickelodeon presenter uses references to the borough to humour the audiences with the fairytale set in the village of Basildon.

Having spent two years in Basildon, the producer does not hold back and takes humour in wooden shop windows in Basildon town centre and anti-social behaviour in Pitsea.

Ugly step-sisters Nigella and Farage are the typical panto villains who encourage those 'oh no your nots'.

Cinderella is not as star-studded as a rival Southend panto, Peter Pan, which includes Baywatch star, David Hasselhoff and Christopher Biggins, but the talent is clear to see.

A lot of young people featuring in the show live in the Basildon area, one being eight-year-old Mimi Portway, who was selected ahead of hundreds for a part as a fox.

At one stage in the show, Cinderella uses a life-like flying horse as the horse for the carriage. The use of sound, lights and music helps to create the festive atmosphere.

Modern chart songs are used in the show including hits from Ed Sheeran and Bruno Mars while in some stages of the show, audiences are encouraged to dance.

Tickets for the show cost between £18.50 and £21.50 for adults and between £16.50 and £18 for over-60s and children under 16.

For more information visit www.towngatetheatre.co.uk or call 01268 465465.

■ If you are looking for something different then head to Brentwood Theatre, which has produced a winner with its Christmas play, Roald Dahl's Danny Champion of the World.

The theatre always punches above its weight to put on imaginative productions in its limited space and this year is no exception.

The cast is superb with special honours to actors Lee White, who makes a truly evil villain out of Mr Hazell, Pori Matthews, who plays the much younger 12-year-old Danny with great skill, and Jackson Pentland as his dad.

There are moments of comedy as well as a few tear-jerkers and opportunities for children of all ages in the audience to have fun as Danny and his Dad battle Mr Hazell, get involved in poaching, 'kidnap' a load of pheasants and win over the villagers who help them defeat the baddies.

For further information about Danny Champion of the World, which runs until Saturday, January 3, call the box office on 01277 20030 or visit www.brentwood-theatre.co.uk.

One of the top 10 in the UK

OPULENT beauty, dedicated service and exotic royal cuisine can be found at the award-winning Maharaja.

The restaurant, in London Road, Benfleet, has twice been nominated as one of the top 10 Indian restaurants in the UK, during the British Curry Awards.

More than 1,500 restaurateurs witnessed its second triumph last year, during a ceremony at London's Battersea Evolution.

A record 40,000 public nominations were received for the awards, covering more than 2,700 restaurants.

The Maharaja was voted best in the South East and became one of the top 10 restaurants in the UK, in the final heats of the "Oscars" of the UK curry restaurant industry.

Siraj Ali, owner of The Maharaja, said: "To be nominated again, as one of the top 10 best Indian restaurants in the country is certainly a dream come true."

"We are always here to ensure that our customers are given the best of everything, and their loyalty and enjoyment has seen the Maharaja rewarded for its pursuit of excellence in Indian cuisine and dining."

"We would like to say a huge thanks to our customers who have helped us reach the pinnacle of success in the industry."

The Maharaja is an Indian restaurant full of heritage, which offers unique and exotic Royal Indian cuisine in a traditional setting fit for a Maharaja.

The Ali family prides itself on providing excellence in cuisine, service and ambience for each and every diner, with authenticity and customer service at the very core.

Specialities include lobster, king prawn, salmon, trout and exotic freshwater fish from the Indian Ocean, including tilapia, while exciting new dishes include ostrich, venison, duck, whole leg of lamb and whole chicken.

The Maharaja has a wealth of offers including "eat as much as you like" buffet nights starting from just £9.95 per person and a la carte options, as well as early bird deals.

Current deals include a four for three drinks offer where you can buy four drinks at the bar and only pay for three, and a two for one offer on its a la carte menu for restaurant diners from Sunday to Thursday – buy one starter and main course, or main course and dessert, and receive another absolutely free.

There are also large party discounts and a resident DJ from Thursday through to Saturday, so you can start the weekend early.

The Maharaja is also the perfect setting for Christmas celebrations and is taking bookings for December, so anyone interested is urged to call for further information and book early to avoid disappointment.

With a free three-course meal for the host for Christmas bookings of a minimum of six people, the Maharaja offers outstanding value-for-money this festive season.

Its takeaway service allows you to dine like a king in your own home, and boasts free home delivery as well as a further discount.

Choose the Maharaja for its opulent beauty, dedication to service, and exotic royal cuisine... it's easy to forget that you are not royalty there.

The restaurant is open from noon to 2.30pm, and from 5.30pm to 11.30pm, from Monday to Wednesday; from noon to 2.30pm, and from 5.30pm to midnight, from Thursday to Saturday and from noon to 11pm on Sundays and Bank Holidays.

For further information, or to book a table, call the restaurant on 01268 794541 / 01268 792141 or visit www.maharajagroup.co.uk.

All done in the best possible taste

If you want to enjoy mouth-watering food this Christmas then make sure you book a table at the popular Taste of Raj.

The long established restaurant, situated in the heart of Rochford, is taking bookings for Christmas Eve, Boxing Day and New Year's Eve, when diners can enjoy its extensive a la carte menu.

Its menu is packed with outstanding Indian cuisine including a vast range of appetisers such as the Mix Platter followed by a variety of traditional favourites. They also have some mouth watering chef specialities such as gosh ada kata, gosh kalia and the popular rajeswari - all of which have their own unique taste thanks to a variety of special spices and ingredients.

If you want to try something different then there are also a range of Persian dishes to choose from, including dansak and pathia, and a variety of sathora dishes that are cooked Bangladeshi style. Also to finish of your meal with a selection of deserts including Cadbury's Flake and passion bowl.

As well as being the ideal place for Christmas celebrations, Taste of Raj is the perfect setting for a range special events throughout the year including birthdays and family occasions.

It also offers outstanding value-for-money thanks to a range of offers including a lunchtime menu, served from Monday to Saturday, which is ideal for business lunches and costs just £8.95 per person (£2 extra for king prawn and hash jal-frezi dishes).

Its Sunday buffet, served from noon to 5.30pm, is the perfect excuse to enjoy fantastic cuisine with all the family as diners can eat as much as they like for just £6.95 per person, with children under the age of 10 can enjoy the buffet for only £3.95.

Customers wanting to enjoy a great meal in the comfort of their own home are also spoilt for choice, as all of the restaurant's dishes can be prepared for takeaway orders.

Its takeaway menu, which has a range of meal deals including a set meal for one for just £10.95 and a set meal for two for £21.95, offers free home delivery on orders of more than £10, and a complimentary bottle of wine on orders of more than £39.95.

All of this is complemented by a great service and warm welcome which go towards making your meal one to remember.

The fully licensed and air conditioned restaurant can also provide an outside catering service for whatever event or special occasion you are planning, and provide a menu to suit.

The restaurant, at 8 East Street, is open seven days a week, including bank holidays, from noon to 2.30pm, and from 5.30pm to 11.30pm, from Monday to Thursday; from noon to 2.30pm, and from 5.30pm to midnight, on Friday and Saturday and from noon to 11.30pm on Sunday.

For further information, or to make a reservation, call Taste of Raj, at 8 East Street, Rochford, on 01702 542916 or 01702 545293, or visit www.taste-of-raj.co.uk.

CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE FOR ALL ADVERTISEMENTS

Orders are accepted by the Publishers subject to the Standard Conditions agreed between the Newspaper Society and the Institute of Practitioners in Advertising. Save that:

1. Advertisements are accepted on the conditions that (a) descriptions relating to goods are accurate and in no way contravene the provisions of the Trade Descriptions Act 1968, and the Fair Trading Act 1973, and (b) the copy complies with the British Code of Advertising Practice. Advertisements offering credit or hire facilities must conform to the Consumer Credit (Advertisements) Regulations 1980.

2. 'Classified' Advertisers offering goods or service of a business, commercial or trade nature will, at the discretion of the Publishers, be deemed 'Trade Advertisers', and as such, must include their names in advertisements. A telephone number is an optional addition to these requirements and not an alternative.

To comply with the Business Advertisements (Disclosure) Order 1977, Trade Advertisers must make it clear that they are selling goods in the course of business either by content, format, size or place of the advertisement or by including words such as 'trade', 'dealer', 'agent', 'wholesaler', '(T)' etc. in the advertisement.

3. The Publishers accept no liability whatsoever for any loss or damage however caused arising out of:

- (a) Any error, inaccuracy or omission in the printing or publishing of any advertisement;
- (b) Any failure to publish an advertisement on the day / date or day / dates specified by the advertiser; or
- (c) Any delay in forwarding or omission to forward replies to box numbers to the Advertiser.

4. The Publishers will endeavour to publish advertisements on the day / date or day / dates specified by the Advertiser but insertion days / dates cannot be guaranteed.

5. Where shrinkage of advertisement occurs for whatever reasons the advertisement will be charged to the nearest full centimetre. This will NOT apply to the full-page advertisements, which remain full pages even after shrinkage.

6. The Publishers reserve the right to reject an advertisement or to vary it in any way they deem fit, at any time before publication, whether or not the advertisement has already been accepted for publication.

7. Whilst every effort is made to minimise errors in advertisements, mistakes do sometimes occur. Advertisers or their agents should therefore check their advertisements and inform us of any errors immediately. Responsibility cannot be accepted for more than one incorrect insertion. Typographical or minor changes, which do not affect the value of the advertisement, do not qualify for republication or allowances.

8. All gross advertising rates (except classified lineage and semi-display) are subject to and include a 0.1% Advertising Standards Board of Finance surcharge, payable by the advertisers to help finance the self-regulatory control system administered by the Advertising Standards Authority.

9. All rates quoted are subject to VAT at the rate currently in force at the time the advertisement appears.

10. Should the rate for advertisements be altered the price for remaining insertions shall be revised accordingly or the publishers shall have the right to cancel the unexpired portion of the order.

11. The placing of an advertisement order will be deemed an acceptance of these conditions.

12. Account facilities are granted at the discretion of the Company.

13. All accounts must be settled within the terms agreed by the Company and the Customer.

(1) Should an advertiser be in breach of the agreed terms, the publisher shall be entitled to levy a 10% surcharge on the value of the whole debt in respect of accounts with terms of less than 30 days, and any discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed.

(2) Regular monthly accounts that are in breach of the agreed terms will pay an interest rate of 6% above the current bank of England base rate for each month that the account is overdue and discounts or commissions that had been allowed will be reclaimed. Should Legal action be required the interest will be charged in accordance with the County Court Act 1984.

14. Where an advertiser instructs / appoints an advertising agent to act on their behalf, the advertiser will remain jointly and severally liable for payment in respect of an advertisement(s) should the appointed agent fail to pay. For the avoidance of doubt, the agent acts for the advertiser and not for the publisher with the agent being responsible for notifying the advertiser of this liability.

15. All queries must be notified, preferably in writing to the accounts department of the publisher within 7 days of the invoice date.

16. All digital services are maintained in partnership with the publishers' hosting service providers. Every effort is made to ensure the continuity of these services, but some occasional technical downtime beyond the publishers control may occur. The publisher and its associated companies shall be under no liability if the production and distribution of web services is delayed or prevented by any cause beyond the control of the publisher.

17. The Publisher may provide voucher copies for published advertisements in electronic form only subject to certain criteria. Further information is available on request.

18. The copyright of advertisements produced wholly or partially by the Publishers belong to the Publishers. Advertisers may not reproduce such advertisements without the Publishers' consent.

Box Numbers
Boxes are open for the receipt of bona fide answers and are not available for distribution of trade canvassing matter. Original testimonials, goods, cash, cash stamps or payments of any kind must not be enclosed. A box Number and postal address are charged as part of the advertisement, i.e. Box No., centre address. There is no charge for forwarding replies.

Box numbers alone are not available for use in 'Trade' advertisements, other than Employment and Business Opportunities.

Holiday & Travel Category
All advertising must contain the name of the advertiser, phone number alone are not permitted.

Data Protection
The service you have requested may require us to carry out a credit search at a credit-referencing agency, which will record the fact that a search has been made. We may need to share your information with other lenders and credit reference agencies.

However, we will only use the information from these searches to make credit-granting decisions and, if necessary, for fraud prevention or tracing debtors.

Data controller will use your information for administration and analysis. We may share your information with other Tindle Group Newspaper companies or carefully selected third parties. We, or they, may send you details of other goods and services, which may be of interest to you. The information may be provided by letter, telephone or other reasonable means of communication. Calls may be recorded or monitored for training purposes.

Special conditions apply with regard to the advertising of adult services, which are outlined to all persons submitting such advertisements.

WYCOMBE WALLOP BLUES

Southend United

Wycombe Wanderers 4
Southend United 1
Brian Jeeves reporting
from Adams Park.

FRUSTRATED Southend United manager Phil Brown sighted defensive frailties as his charges were hammered by league leaders Wycombe Wanderers at Adams Park.

Southend arrived in good shape and off the back of four successive League Two victories. Nevertheless, with the Chairboys sitting at the top of the table, this was viewed as the Shrimpers toughest test to date, although the Buckinghamshire outfit had perhaps exposed a chink in their armour when slipping out of the FA Cup at the hands of AFC Wimbledon last week.

Thanks to the club subsidising travel to the game, Southend were roared on by a huge following of almost 1,100 fans, and within two minutes the Blues hordes were in raptures, Jack Payne supplying a composed finish to beat Wycombe goalkeeper Matt Ingram after Myles Weston had raced away and centred from the right.

Wycombe looked for an immediate response. Matt McClure drew a smart reflex save from Daniel Bentley while Peter Murphy went even closer when the ball broke, crashing an effort against the top of the bar from 25 yards.

The home side continued to press with greater intent, Pierre's knock down found Paris Cowan-Hall, and the winger brilliantly beat Bentley with an assured finish to restore parity.

The upbeat tempo of the game continued, however, on a difficult surface any kind of fluent football and further clear-cut chances came at a premium.

But on the stroke of half-time Blues were once again breached. Matt McClure was on hand to knock home after Sam Wood had driven in from the left.

Southend manager Brown threw Kevan Hurst and Gary Deegan into the fray at the start of the second-half in a bid to invigorate his team, and the move almost paid dividends when Hurst's dead-ball effort was scooped out by the glove of Ingram.

Blues continued to probe. Under pressure, Ingram fisted away testing flag kicks from Michael Timlin and Hurst, while Worrall's free-kick from a central position drifted disappointingly over.

Soon after, Worrall had Ingram scrambling low across his goal as Southend turned the screw, but then a flashpoint. Blues Crystal Palace loanee Jerome Binnom-Williams thundered into Josh Scowen and referee Graham Horwood had no hesitation in brandishing a red card to the Southend man.

Blues were clearly rattled by this turn of events and Wycombe sensed their opportunity. Bentley did well to thwart McClure, but the Southend keeper could do very little to stop the home side extending their advantage when Joe Jacobson's curling free-kick found the top corner of the net.

Southend looked a beaten side. Cowan-Hall had Bentley fully extended as Wycombe went for the kill. But the home side didn't have to wait too long for a fourth. McClure adding his second of the afternoon with a thundering strike from just outside the box.

This was turning into an uncomfortable afternoon for Southend.

Substitute Fred Onyedinna missed a glorious close range opportunity to add a fifth after Wycombe had crafted well down the right flank.

Ryan Leonard tried to give the scoreline a little more respectability for Southend, but his free-kick just cleared Ingram's goal. But in truth the Shrimpers didn't deserve anything from the encounter against a Wycombe side who had demonstrated just why they are in pole position.

A disappointed Brown said: "It was a great worked goal, Jack Payne got himself on the scoresheet, then after that we didn't play. We didn't get the ball down, we didn't seem to settle as a team."

"To be fair Dan Bentley has had to pull a great save off before they've got the equalizer."

"Today was about set pieces which is very uncharacteristic of us, we've conceded three goals from them."

He added: "I'm not going to bemoan referee's decisions, sendings off, but at 2-1 I still fancied our chances of taking something from the game."

On Binnom-Williams dismissal, Brown said: "I think it was probably the fact that the kid was fully committed. I'm not going to pull him away from that. It's not a red card in the game of football."

"Referees are overprotective of the game, shall we say. They're taking tackling out of it. Jerome has gone in there fully committed, the lad [Scowen] has stayed on the field of play, he wasn't injured."

"If he wants to give it for aggression then maybe a yellow card, but as far as I'm concerned I want commitment from my players and I got it."

Midfielder Payne said: "It was a dream start for us, but it didn't mean anything in the end."

"Obviously Wycombe are a good team, but we conceded soft goals, we weren't really at it at all today."

Non-league round-up

Beach Boys hold Bees

by Brian Jeeves

TEN-MAN Concord Rangers produced a fantastic FA Trophy first round performance as Conference Premier League leaders Barnet escaped from the Aspect Arena with a goalless draw.

Beach Boys defender Danny Glozier received his marching orders following a professional foul at the start of the second-half. But the Canvey-based outfit more than held their own and earned a replay against a team currently ranked the best non-league side in England.

Braintree Town were also in Trophy action. A second-half Simeon Akinola strike earning the Iron a single-goal derby victory over AFC Sudbury.

In the Vanarama Conference South, there was a dramatic finish at the Melbourne Stadium where Chelmsford City piped Eastbourne Borough by the odd goal in five. Southend United loanee Jason Williams continued to shine for the Clarets, grabbing a brace including a last-minute winner, with Mark Hughes also on target. Sinclair and Pinney replied for Boro.

In the Ryman Premier Division East, Thurrock United were involved in an entertaining encounter at Wingate & Finchley. Connor Witherspoon, Reece Harris, Lewis Smith and Sam Higgins found the net for the Rocks in a 4-3 success. Canvey Island saw off Peacehaven & Telscombe 2-1 at the Prospects Stadium, Harrison Chatting and John Easterford on target for the Gulls, while there were draws for Billericay Town, 2-2 with Lewes at New Lodge, and AFC Hornchurch, 0-0 with Kingstonian at Bridge Avenue.

However, it wasn't such a good day for Grays Athletic who crashed 3-1 at Leatherhead.

In Division One North, Great Wakering Rovers pulled off a thrilling 5-3 win at Maldon & Tiptree. Liam Nash, Jay Nash, Billy Johnson (2) and player-manager Dan Trenkel were on target for the villagers, Nathan Korangten (2) and Alex Andrews responding for the Jammers.

Aaron Gayle grabbed the only goal as Heybridge Swifts won 1-0 at Chatham Town, and Redbridge picked up maximum points, beating Dereham Town 2-1.

Romford and Waltham Abbey played out a 1-1 draw, but the news from our other clubs was less encouraging.

Tilbury went down 3-2 at home to Harlow Town, Rimmel Daniel and Thomas Wood on target for the Dockers either side of the interval. Aveley were sunk 3-0 as Brightlingsea Regent were the visitors, and there was a 2-0 setback for Thurrock at Needham Market; Michael Brothers grabbing a pair for the winners.

Rock bottom Burnham Ramblers continued to struggle. This time the Mid-Essex outfit crashed 6-2 at Soham Town Rangers.

In the Essex Senior League, Waltham Forest were top scorers of the day, thrashing Sporting Bengal United 4-0.

Newham impressively won 3-1 at Enfield 1893 and it was the same outcome at Cricklefield Stadium, where FC Romania beat hosts Ilford.

Elsewhere Haringey Borough won 2-1 at Tower Hamlets.

Interesting clashes set up in Senior Cup quarter final draw

Football

DAGENHAM & Redbridge against Concord Rangers is one of the high-lights of the Essex Senior Cup Quarter-Final draw which was announced last week.

With just one Fourth Round fixture outstanding there are seven teams definitely through from the Ryman League to the Sky Bet Football League.

The Daggers, who last lifted the trophy in 2001 and knocked out

Waltham Abbey in Round Four, will host the holders Concord, who came through a penalty shootout at home to Grays Athletic at the last stage.

The only remaining last 16 tie sees Redbridge host Canvey Island on Tuesday. The winners of that clash will earn a home quarter-final against 2013 champions AFC Hornchurch.

Of additional interest was the local derby generated between Aveley and Thurrock, whose grounds are separated by just over a mile.

The Millers recorded an impressive 3-2 victory over Chelmsford City last time around, while their neighbours secured an equally notable 4-1 success against Vanarama Conference outfit Braintree Town. Billericay Town, the 2011 winners who beat Harlow Town 3-2, entertain one of only two sides remaining to have never reached the final, Brightlingsea Regent.

Ben Fryer from the BBC Essex Sports Team assisted with the draw by pulling the home teams from the bag at the station's Chelmsford studios, with Essex County FA chief executive Phil Sammons responsible for the away clubs.

These quarter-finals are due to be completed on or before Saturday January 24.

Recycle your small WEEE (Waste Electrical and Electronic Equipment) this Christmas

Reduce your 'waste' line this Christmas by using the kerbside recycling service for small electrical items. Please turn over for further information.

Working towards recycling 60% by 2015

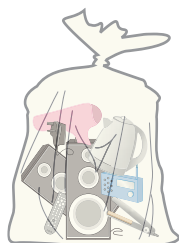

Small WEEE recycling

To help Southend residents recycle even more of their waste, Southend-on-Sea Borough Council in partnership with Cory Environmental can now collect small electrical items that are placed in carrier bags on a residents' normal recycling collection day.

To recycle small electrical items, the service could not be simpler to use. Residents will need to:

- 1 Please place your small electrical appliances into a carrier bag. Even if they are broken they can still be recycled. Please note: regrettably we are unable to collect any items larger than 40cm (h) x 40cm (w) x 40cm (d) in a carrier bag as it is too large for the storage container on our vehicles.

- 2 Tie up the carrier bag.

- 3 Place your carrier bag next to your pink recycling sack on your next and subsequent collection day.

What can be recycled?

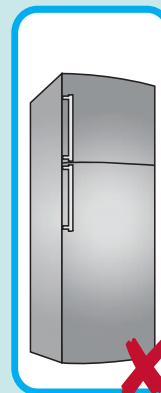

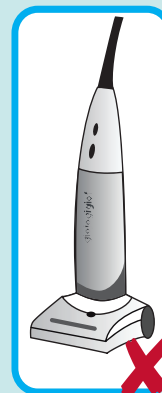

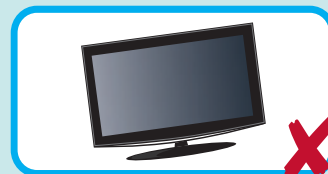

Anything that requires batteries or a plug to operate and is no larger than 35cm x 40cm. Below are just a few examples:

Don't forget old chargers, mobile phones and even electrical children's toys can be included!

What can't be collected?

We are sorry but we cannot collect loose household batteries or large electrical appliances exceeding 35cm x 40cm. Examples include:

What can I do with larger electrical appliances?

Large electrical appliances can be taken to either of the two Household Waste Recycling Centres located at Leigh Marshes, Leigh-on-Sea or Stock Road, Southend-on-Sea free of charge. Alternatively, for a small fee these can be collected at the kerbside. Please visit www.southend.gov.uk/bulkywaste or contact (01702) 215006 for more information.

Don't forget if you are planning to visit the Household Waste Recycling Centres that any small electrical appliances can be recycled there at any time. Other materials can be recycled there if you visit: computer monitors, energy saving light bulbs and batteries.

Recycle your Christmas tree lights!

Using the small WEEE recycling service you can now recycle your broken or unwanted Christmas tree lights, fairy lights by placing them in a carrier bag, or alternatively these can be taken to either of the HWRC's (Household Waste Recycling Centres) located in Stock Road, Southend-on-Sea and Leigh Marshes, Leigh-on-Sea.

Why not follow our recycling campaign on Facebook and Twitter? These pages have been set up to give residents of Southend-on-Sea the latest recycling information.

Recycle your real Christmas tree this year!

Once the festive season is over, you may wonder what to do with your real Christmas tree. If this is the case, then why not take up the chance for Cory Environmental to collect it, free of charge?

All you have to do is simply place your real Christmas tree at the front boundary of your property, in a visible position, ensuring all decorations and pots have been removed.

Cory Environmental will then collect the tree within ten working days and arrange for it to be composted. If the tree hasn't been collected after this period, please contact Southend-on-Sea Borough Council on (01702) 215006, so that a collection can be arranged.

You can also take your real Christmas tree(s) to both of the Household Waste Recycling Centres and place it in the green waste container, where it will also be sent for composting.
